

Design Awards

---

Cape Girardeau Conservation Campus Nature Center, Missouri Department of Conservation.

Exceptional architecture goes beyond solving programmatic and functional requirements of a building. It elevates the spirit and inspires. The results of our effort to obtain this level of excellence is the recognition we have received for our contributions to the built environment. Achieving and maintaining industry - recognized ideals is an important part of every project we design.

2010 Honor Award for Design Excellence, AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Eco School House at Grant Elementary School, Columbia, Missouri.

1st Place at the 2009 Missouri Literary Festival Sustainable Design Exhibition & Awards: Eco School House at Grant Elementary School, Columbia, Missouri. Awards co-sponsored by the Missouri Literary Festival, US Green Building Council – Missouri Heartland Chapter and MU Extension

2009 First Annual Inspiration Awards, Honorable Mention: Eco Schoolhouse, Columbia, Missouri
A national competition sponsored by Contract Magazine to recognize social responsibility in commercial interior architecture where design is used to improve the quality of life for those in need and cause-related work by the commercial interiors community.

2009 Green Building of America Award: Eco School House at Grant Elementary School, Columbia, Missouri. Recognizes the project as one of the top 50 sustainable projects in the Midwest region. Award sponsored by Construction Communications, publisher of Real Estate and Construction Review.

2005 Merit Award, AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Cape Girardeau Conservation Campus Nature Center, Missouri Department of Conservation.

2002 Merit Award, AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Taylor Phi Delta Theta Baseball Stadium - University of Missouri-Columbia.

1997 Honorable Mention Award, AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Peden's Residence; Columbia, Missouri.

1995 Honor Award, AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Butterfield Youth Services, Child and Family Therapy Center; Marshall, Missouri.

1995 Third Prize World's Fair Site Selection: International Competition for 1995 World's Fair. Budapest, Hungary.

1995 First Prize World's Fair Master Plan: International Competition for 1995 World's Fair. Budapest, Hungary.

1994 Special Recognition AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: Boone County Fire Protection District Station No. 1, Boone, County, Missouri.

Taylor Phi Delta Theta Baseball Stadium - University of Missouri-Columbia.

1994 Special Recognition AIA Mid-Missouri Design Awards: TEXTRON/Automotive Interiors, Columbia, Missouri.

1994 Honor Award AIA Mid Missouri Design Awards: 15 South Tenth Street Building Renovation; Columbia, Missouri.

1984 City of Columbia Energy Conservation Award: Residence at 206 Westwood Avenue, Columbia, Missouri.

1981 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Optimum Value Engineering Program Competition Award: Low-cost Housing, Columbia, Missouri.

1980 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Design Competition Award: Trombe Wall Townhouses, Columbia, Missouri.

1980 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Solar Instrumentation Award: Columbia, Missouri.

1979 U.S. Department of Energy Passive Solar Commercial Building Award: Community United Methodist Church, Columbia, Missouri.

1978 U.S. Department of Energy Design Competition Award: Passive Solar Home, Columbia, Missouri.