FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

College of Fellows Representatives Selected

Columbia, Missouri April, 25, 2011 — The AIA College of Fellows has selected Nick Peckham FAIA, Columbia, and David Hoffman FAIA, Wichita, as 2011 – 2013 Regional Representatives for the Central States (IA, KS, MO, NE, OK). The AIA College of Fellows seeks to stimulate a sharing of interests among Fellows, promote the purposes of the Institute, advance the profession of architecture, to mentor young architects, and be of ever-increasing service to society.

The College of Fellows, founded in 1952, is composed of members of the Institute who are elected to Fellowship by a jury of their peers. Fellowship is one of the highest honors the AIA can bestow upon a member. Elevation to Fellowship not only recognizes the achievements of the architect as an individual but also elevates before the public and the profession those architects who have made significant contributions to architecture and to society.

PWA Co-Founder and Architect Nicholas Peckham, FAIA.

The College of Fellows Regional Representatives coordinate these efforts in their region.
